Russia's pov

I rolled over and groaned as sunlight shines threw my window and in my eyes, not really wanting to get up yet I grab a pillow and cover up my face to block out the light. I slowly began to drift off to sleep but before I could fall fully asleep my phone began to ring. I let out an annoyed and frustrated whine as I throw my legs over the edge of my bed, forcing myself to sit up. I then grabbed my phone and answered it. "H..hello?" I said with a tired and shaky voice. "Hey, Russia!" A loud voice from the other side of my phone said, making me jump and drop my phone, my eyes widened with fear as the electric slipped out of my hand and thankfully landing in my lap with a plop sound. I sighed in relief and grab my phone placing it near my ear once more. "Russia? Are you there? Hello?" The voice said with hint of worriedness , I laughed. "Yeah, I'm here Canada I just dropped my phone that all." I said in a reasureing tone. "Oh sorry, I just wanted to know if you would like to go to the night club with me and a few others?" Canada asked me out of curiosity, knowing I can't resist an opportunity to get drunk. " Ehhh... I don't know Canada who else is going?" I said just to be aware of who I will be getting drunk with. "Well.... There is me, America, North Korea, Japan and you." He said knowing I'm going to go anyway. "Sure I will be over in like an hour or so." I said stretching, making my back pop and crack in multiple spots as I raise my arms high above my head. " Okay! See you then Russ!" He said in excitement. "Okay see ya." I then ended the call and began walking to my dresser to sorting threw my clothes to fine something decent. I found a black turtle neck sweater, light blue high waisted skinny jeans, red and white Converse and of course my ushanka hat. I then walked over to my bathroom and placed the clean clothes on the sink with a towel. I then began getting undressed, throwing the dirty clothes in a round basket. I then leaned over the tub and turned the hot water then the cold water on, not to hot or to cold.

After that I stepped in the tub and pulled up the Shower diverter, Wich then made warm water gently hit my skin from above. I took a moment to enjoy the warmth of the water before I quickly grabbed my body wash and applied it to a wash rag. I then began to clean myself trying to avoid getting soap in my eyes. After I washed the soap off I stepped out of the shower and on a soft rug. I then quickly dried off trying not to get cold. Once I I was finished I put on my undergarments (socks, boxers, ect), then I put on my clothes that I picked out, I then followed up that by putting on my red Converse, tying then neatly. After I was completely done I took one last look in a mirror to make sure everything is good. I then went back in my room I grabbed my ushanka hat and placed it on my head, I then grabbed my phone,box charger, a small black chord, my wallet and of course my dorm keys I then transferred them to my pockets as I was leaving my dorm. I locked my dorm as I left knowing there are a few small gangs who like to enter unlocked dorms and take things that are valuable. After that I texted Canada to tell him I'm on my way. I then placed my phone back in my pocket and started to walk down to the brothers dorm.

Time skip about 20 or 30 minutes

As Russia made his way to America's and Canada's dorm he noticed that the hallways are more crowded then usual so he knew it was going to take a longer time then normally on the count of him not wanting to bump in to anyone or talk to anyone at this time so he decided to take the long way to get to his destination. After turning around and going past his own dorm he had to go up like five flights of stairs to get to the floor that Canada and America was on. Tired and thirsty he finally made it to the 8th floor, he then stopped to catch his breath and get a drink of water out of the water fountain to the left of the doors that lead to the stairs. After he took a few drinks from the delicious and clean water he wiped around his mouth to get the water that managed to drip down his chin. He then checked the time on his phone it read 11:29 am and he left his dorm at 8:00 am he sighed knowing he took 3 hours to climb five flights of stairs, which he ran up half if them. He then stretched and began walking down the less crowded hallway to his destination dorm 500. He let out a sigh of relief and gently knocked on the door.

America's pov

I heard a knock at the door, I questioned who would be visiting as I opened the door to see a familiar figure with a signature ushanka hat on his head I smiled knowing it was the Russian from the 3rd floor. "Hey, c'mon in Canada is up stairs he will be down in a moment." I said as I let him in. "Oh okay, thanks." He looked up at me and smiled before sitting down on the sofa. "Would you like anything?" I said trying to be polite. He looked up at me in confusion. "Oh no, thanks for asking though." He said with a smile, Wich I couldn't help but blush. He seemed to notice so I quickly looked away, he seemed to shrug it off. "So how have you been?" He asked braking the silence. "Uhh... I've been pretty good. W..what about you?" I asked kinda nervous. "I could be better" he said a little surprised that I asked about his we'll being. "Is something wrong?" I asked a little concerned, this caused his head to shoot up at look at me, I think he is blushing?? " No, it's just some things that... Uh I'm working on in coding class" he looked away from me. I laughed, "Oh I see im kinda lucky I don't have coding until another year" I said in a teasing manner. He huffed and turned his attention back to me. "Lucky" he growled causing me to start cackling like bewildered which. To my surprise he laughed as well. "So who is your dorm mate?" I asked looking at him with a small smile. "Oh I don't really have a dorm mate, most people check in to the hotel a few blocks away from the college." He said as he shrugged his shoulder. " I could be you roommate if it's okay with you." I said with a big grin. He looked at me with a shocked expression. "What about Canada?" I shrug my shoulder. "I'm pretty sure he won't miss me, I mean he has Ukraine and South Korea." I said trying not to show any pain. "I guess it wouldn't hurt." He said generally amused. I just stood up and fist pump the air with a quiet 'yes' which he rolled his eyes. "Under one condition, you can't be a slop and mess up the whole dorm." He said with a dead serious face, which kinda scared me. I viciously nod my head to agree with the condition.

It's been a few weeks since our beloved America moved in with his high school friend Russia. Russia didn't seem to mind that the smaller contry was always in to trouble, he honestly thought it was fun, even though after what America did to him in highschool he still talks to him he just doesn't won't him to be in his life.

Flash back 4 years ago.

It was Russia last day in high school and he was finally going to ask out America. He wrote him a note and was bringing it to him around the back of the school were an old oak tree set behind a wooden bench. After he made it to the back of the school the bench was in sight. He began walking to it from behind . He stopped in shock and anger. He was talking to Japan, then they kisses. He felt something break in him. He ran past them, ignoring America yelling for him to come back. He began to cry, he didn't want to go back. He thought America had feeling for him. But he was wrong. He ran home and stayed in him room for about a week only leaving it for food or to use the bathroom. He even ignored everyone on all his social media.

End of flash back

Russia felt anger began to billed up. But then he felt sadness.. tears began forcing their way out and down his cheeks without warning. He quickly whipped them away and made sure America was not their to see. To his surprise he was gone. Russia got up and began wandering the dorm looking for America, nope he was completely gone. Russia then grabbed his phone and texted Canada and asked he America was there he responded with a no. He then began to worry. He grabbed his phone, jacket, wallet and Kay's he then left the dorm looking it before he left. He then made his way threw the vary crowded hallway and in to the lunch room. He then saw North Korea and Japan. He walked over to them and that smiled as they noticed him. "Hey uh have you guys see Meri?" He ask vary concerned and worried. The two girls looked at each other then school their head no. Russia's heart stopped. He began running to the library skidding to a stop at the doors. He took a deep breath and relaxed, walking in the room. He saw Germany, y/n and North Korea. He sighed and turned around and once again ran out if the room and made is way to duchies dorm. When no one answered he began to panic. He had gotten closer to America then he attended. He now had vary strong feeling for the smaller contry, now that he is gone Russia feels like his world is collapsing over again. He fell to his knees and begin to cry. He then realized that this is not the best time to fall apart his Loved one is Missing. He growled and forced himself to his feet wiping his tears and catching his breath. He then whispered a soft "I will find you." To his self and began searching for America. He sighed and thought for a moment.

He then had an idea. He walked to an elevator and clicked the button on the wall it had the number 1 on it. He wonted to go the the first floor. He began searching for America, with no luck he went to the second floor then the third still nothing. Russia then gave up. It was almost 12:00 in the morning he had been searching for him all day he sighed and made his was back to his dorm. He dug his keys from his pocket, putting the key in the lock and twisting it. He took a quick look around the room to see if America was there. Still no sign of the smaller contry who made his mark on the taller ones heart. Russia now hoping for the best, slowly realizing the worse. What if he was killed. Did someone hurt him. He began to fall apart, he just got America and he has already lost him again. His world is collapsing and he doesn't know how to fix it. He began crying. Tears forcing their way out and down his flustered cheeks. His sobs only growing louder as time passes.

America pov.

I began to explore the slightly bigger dorm. I began walking upstairs the top of the dorm looks in touched. I had an idea what if I cleaned everything and then show Russia maybe he will like it. So that what I did I began cleaning the rooms. I took all the bed sheets and washed them. I then began washing the walls with a mop. I continued to clean the upper half of the large dorm. I then looked over at the clock hanging on the wall it read. 9:00 am I sighed and began cleaning again. A few hours began to pass the sun was sitting I yawned and laying back on the newly made bad falling asleep.

Time skip

I woke up and groaned, I look over to a clock on the wall it reads 12 in the morning. I sigh, as I hear a noise coming form down stairs. I began to think someone has invaded the dorm. Now remembering Russia being down their I begin to panic. I the grabbed the broom and made my way down stairs, not making a noise in fear of whoever it is has intentions on harming or my crush me. I then walked to Russia room his door is wide open. My heart sank. I then walked in the room seeing the taller contry laying on his back sobbing not noticing the other as he walked over to bed that the taller contry is laying on. He then covered his eyes with his hands still unaware that the smaller male is in his room. "R.. Russia?" America said broken hearted. He jerked and looked at him a big smile on his face. He pulled him in a tight hug and began to sob as he hides his face in America's neck, in shock he don't move." A.. America I.. I was s..so worryed w.. where were y..you." Russia said pulling away. America smiled. "I was busy doing something for you, I have been here since this morning." America said with a grin. "What? I checked you room." Russia now was a bit upset. America rubbed the back of his neck nervously and grab Russia's hand tugging him to his feet him and pulling him away from his spot, Russia didn't not know what was happening and stood his ground but after seeing the smaller contry's smile fade and begin to wimper he gave in and didn't bother to pull away. Russia was was about to pull away but instead he just followed. As they reached the hall at the stop of the stairs America flipped a light switch on the wall and the hallway lit up. Russia let out a surprised gasp and stopped dead in his tracks. He then walked to the bed rooms. The left one had bunk beds, and looked like a kid's room. The second looked like a day care, it was filled with things for a baby. The third one was filled with a queen size bed, two dressers, night stands, a computer desk with a leather chair, a new looking computer and some note books, pencils, pens and a flat screen TV attached to the wall across from the bed. The Bed sheet that covered the bed was the Russia and America flag merged together. The pillows and blankets had the same on them. Russia turns his attention back to America. "Y..you did all of this? B..but why?" Russia asked him as a red color begins to dust his cheeks. "I dont know if you remember or not but... A couple years ago in highschool- well the last day of highschool that is, we were going to meet up at the old oak tree were a wooden bench sat in front of it it was behind the school. You wanted to tell me something but when I was their Japan came up to me she confessed her feelings for me and wanted to know if I felt the same but I didn't, at the time I had feeling for you. When I told her that she smiled and kissed me and said I'm happy that your my friend and I understand. Then after that you ran by passing us up. I tried to yell at you to stop... But you didn't... "I felt tears fall down my cheeks. "I'm sorry, I never w.. wanted to..to hurt you.. i.. I know you h...hate me. I..I thought I..if I don't..did something I..I could f.. finally w..win you b.. back." I begin to sob.

Russia pov.

As he began to explain what happened I felt tears fall down my cheeks. I wrap my arms around him and pull him closer to my chest. He hides his face in my chest and sobs softly. I then begin to hug him tighter and whisper sweet things to him to try to calm him down to my surprise it worked."shhhh, it's okay Ame, I forgive you." He looked up at me, his eyes red and puffy, his cheeks red with tear trails going down his face. "I'm sorry" he whispers to me one last time. I smile at him and pick him up. He wraps his legs around my waist and his arm around my neck. I then sit down on the bed and lean against the headboard. I then look at America's face once more, his eyes are less puffy and red and he is smiling with a small blush covering his cheeks. I smile at how cute he looks and turn my attention to the door Wich is open. I sigh and set America down on the bed I then make my way over to the door and close it and lock it. After that I turn around and walk back to the bed and sit down. "R.. Russia w..what are y..you doing?" He gulps. I smile at him and wrap my arms around his waist, pulling him in my lap as I did he let out a surprised gasp and his face begin to turn even redder. I then lay back pulling him on top of me. America stopped resisting and layed his head on my chest, wrapping his arms around me.

It's been a few days since America renovated the whole upper half of the dorm that he shared with Russia. Russia and America have gotten really close every since America confessed what happened between him and Japan, Russia on the other hand still didn't want to admit what he was going to talk to America about he felt guilty for not having anything to do with the smaller it hurt him so much because he thought America just used him but he didn't. Russia being to push his thoughts away and lock them up as he felt tears on the verge of falling, taking a deep breaths to calm his self. He looked over at his lover sleeping peacefully he smiles as he sees Ame cuddling up to him in his sleep, he blushed realizing that he finally belongs to him. Russia shifts slightly to see the clock next to him on the night stand it read 12:39 am he sighs and lays back in the previous position. America groans and begins to wake up. He yawns and rubbing his eyes before glancing at the clock on the left of Russia before turning his full attention to the taller contry who jumped at the sudden movement. "Russia? Baby what are you doing up at twelve in the morning?" America says giving him a motherly tone as he sits up placing his hands on his hips. Russia blushes and smirks as he looks hot as fuck. America quickly noticed him and blushed a little before pointing to the clock to the left of Russia. "Oh yeah, I woke up and couldn't go back to sleep." Russia said before smiling slightly. America then sighed and stretch before getting up out if bed, in nothing but pants, no boxers. "Hey Russia would you like anything to eat? " America question the taller country. Russia stretched and got up and walked to America before placing a hand on his shoulder a smirk on his face. "Yeah." He says leaning down so his face was inches away from America's, America's eyes widened as Russia put his hand around his waist and pulling him closer before grabbing the smaller males chin and leaning forward and kissing him. As America felt Russia's body begging to rub against his own he felt heat rise to his head. After A few moments Russia pulled away leaning down to America's (nonexistent) ear whispering 'you' before pulling him in bed. America gasp as he felt Russia's hand trail down his body to his thighs. The smaller contry couldn't help but let out quite moans as Russia's teasing turned him on, he wanted this and he showed it. As America's moaned Russia decided to go further now rubbing America's bulge threw his pants making him arch his back and moan loudly. Russia smirked and unzipped America's pants finally freeing his member from the tightness. America let's out a surprised gasp as he felt Russia beginning to rub his member. He bites his bottom lip as the taller begins to lick his member. "A...ah~" America moans as Russia begins taking his full length in his mouth with ease. America couldn't hold himself back any longer he gripped the back of Russia head and started thrusting his hips forward making his cock go down Russia throat gagging him slightly. America's muscles tense up and with one final thrust he cummed in Russia mouth filling it completely. Russia swallowed it without hesitation before licking his lips and leaning forward once more to kiss America, this time biting his bottom lip asking for entrance and of course the smaller male gave it to him without hesitation. As the Russia began to explore his new territory America let out quite moans and let his hand travel down Russia flat stomach to his crotch, rubbing it with his fingers. Russia groaned before pulling away from America, he pulls down his pants and boxers revealing a fully erect dick. America's eyes widened and he gasp as he looked at Russia size. Russia walks over to the bed and grabs America picking him up with ease he turns him over so now he is on his and and knees. Russia positioned his cock at America ass rubbing the entrance with the tip of his cock causing him to moan and buck his hips slightly. Russia smirks and pushes his hips forward entering America's tight entrance. America whined in pain as Russia forced his full length inside the small body. Russia didn't move instead he leaned forward and begins licking, kissing and nibbling on his neck, as Russia bite the crease of America's neck he gasped and moaned slightly louder. Russia smirks and bites down on that spot letting it go. This makes America buck his hips. Russia couldn't hold himself back any longer he bagan thrusting slowly, but soon fastening his pace due to America moaning out his name. "A...ah~ f..fuck me h.. harder d..daddy~ America moans loudly as Russia beings to penetrate his prostate. Russia liked how America called him daddy hebegan to pant as he moaned thrusting deep inside of him causing him to cum all over the bed sheets under him. "Aaah~ I'm going to c..cum~ Russia moans and his muscles tense up. "Y..yes d..daddy~ America moans loudly as Russia cums inside his but not stopping he thrusted a few more times. Before pulling out and laying down next to America hugging him.

5 the past?

It's been a three weeks since Russia and America have have started dateing. They haven't talked to their families about dateing there enemies or about being gay. America fears if his father finds out about Russia he would beat him and try to murder Russia, in all honesty America would hurt his self if his precious Russia got injured or hurt. Russia on the other hand has been planning on telling his father about America in hopes he will not hold a grudge against him since America and Russia never got along well in high school until the last year. Russia smiles as he looks at pictures on his phone. When Russia and America first began to talk, the two would get embarrassed and blush over the smallest thing which Russia thought was kinda cute. When Russia and America first became friends they would hang out 90% of the time they were always hanging out with each other. America and Russia stayed around each other so much that Japan, duchie, Germany and Poland would question him about America they would have him if he had feelings for the smaller male or if he was gay at the time Russia didn't really know what they mean by that that is until all of the pictures of him America began to flood his phone due to Japan thinking it would be a good prank on the two, he saw how happy he looked around America and how America would say dirty comments to him that he never really understood until he began looking threw more of the pictures. As Russia begins revealing more and more of the past relationship that he once had with America his heart hurts as he trys to fight back the tears. America walked in room that he shares with Russia his heart stopped as he saw tears fall down Russia flustered cheeks, America quietly walks over to the bed that Russia is sitting on he noticed that he was looking threw pictures from the past, he sits down on the bed next to Russia causing him to jump at the sudden movement. America smiles softly at Russia. "Revealing the past?" America says in a caml tone. "Y..yeah, this is when I realized what everything ment, why people would ask me if I was gay or why I blushed viciously and had butterfly's in my stomach when I was around you." Russia said as a slight shade of red began to cover his cheeks causing America to smile. "Yeah I guess the past can hurt." America says before gently grabbing Russia's hand and holding in in his. Russia nods. "Hey do you remember the first time we talked?" America said smiling at the taller male who blushes 15 shades of red. "How could I forget we were arguing about who's dick was bigger." Russia smirks and snickers at the smaller male dumbfounded facial expression. "Yeah I remember..." America says as his face turns redder then a tomato causing Russia to laugh at his embarrassment. "What's so funny?" America growls as a protest. "It's just when I pulled out my cock your jaw dropped to the floor and.. ". Russia begins laughing unable to finish his sentence. "Yeah yeah I know I lost vary funny" America blushes as Russia laughs. "Im gasp sorry" Russia says as he gasped for air trying to catch his breath. This amused America and he began to laugh at Russia who begins to laugh and lean forward holding his stomach and releasing America's hand. America finds this somehow funny and begin to laugh at Russia who now had tears of pure joy in his eyes. "Go-god Russia I..I love you" America says as he catches his breath and looks over at the now gasping Russia. Russia began taking deep breaths to calm his self once his caught his breath he turned his full attention to the smaller male. "Ame what will your dad think of me?" Russia asked America, who looked at him with fear. "I..I'm not sure I'm scared to tell him I'm afraid he will disapprove you..." America said as he looks away from Russia. "Hey it's okay that doesn't mean we can't be together if he doesn't support you then he's a bad father." Russia said pulling the smaller male into a tight hug. "Yeah your right." America said as he hugs Russia and hides his face in his chest. "I love you Russia and I never want to lose you" America says hugging the taller male tighter. "I....I love you too Ame." Russia said before kissing America's forehead. " I'm glad you belong to me I promise I will always protect you, as long as your my lover no one will hurt you." Russia said as he looks down at America who now begins to sob. "I promise..." Russia whispers in America's (nonexistent) ear before pulling him in to a small kiss.

Russia has been planning on having a meeting with his father, he told him it's about school but he lied so he would not make an excuse why he could not show up. On the other hand he didn't lie in a way he really did need help with a science project which was due in a week. Russia smiles softly as he remembered the last science project.

Flash back

Russia had forgotten and his principal had called his father and told him about it he told him if Russia could not do good in this class he would have to retake the class next year. Russia was heartbroken he didn't understand what to do and he was to shy to ask his teacher or his friends for help he didn't want to ask his father because he was busy helping Ukraine and Belarus with dance lessons and homework so he never really ask him for help. He always had to much to do and little time to do it. When Russia's got home from school that day his father was extremely upset he had no clue why his sons behavior has been different he never hesitated to ask him for help with anything but now that he hasn't he is worryed that something is wrong with Russia. Once Russia step foot in the front door he was greeted by his father's pissed face and structure this scared Russia he feared his father would spank him with a belt and to Russia that was one of the worst things in the world, but instead of USSR getting upset he smiply ask. "Son why haven't you told me you are struggling in science class?" Russia felt like he was going to explode but he answered his father with the 100% truth. "Father I'm sorry I didn't want to ask for help because you were busy with Ukraine and Belarus I didn't want to take your free time." Russia said as he looked down at the floor ashamed of his behavior. This caused USSR to pull Russia in a tight hug." Russia I know I'm busy but that doesn't mean I don't have time to help you I'm going to be here for you and your siblings." Russia began to cry at his father's soft words as he hugged him.

End of flash back

Russia felt tears fall down his cheeks as he remembers one of the best moment with his father he loves his father and would do anything to please him. Russia smiles and gets up and walks down the hall, turning a quick right to go down a flight of stairs to the living room were America sat watching TV and eating pancakes. America looks up at Russia and smacks his hand down next to him pating the cushions gently. "Come sit next to me baby" America says as he looks up at the slightly flustered Russia. Russia hesitates for a moment but soon makes his way over to the smirking America, he then sits down next to him and leans his head on the smaller males shoulder making him jump and blush as be sees his lover laying against him. America was about to say something but was interrupted by a knock at the door, America groans annoyed before getting up and walking over to the door opening it. "Hello?" America looked at the tall male standing in front of him. "Dose Russia live hear?" The tall man asked with a strong accent. When Russia heard this he immediately yelled dad, he quickly got up and ran to the door jumping into the males arms. "Russia I'm so happy to see you and why is the American in your house?" USSR gave a cold glare to America making his heart drop. "Well Dad I need to talk to you about something." Russia says before pulling USSR and America to the kitchen. They both sit down with Russia. "Dad I know me and America never got along but... You see I have developed feeling for him the last year of high school and I have decided I would like to spend my life with him... D..do you approve of this?" Russia said as he grabs America's hand gently holding and caressing it in his. USSR looks at his son in pure shock and betrayal but after a few moments he let's out a soft sigh before smiling softly at the two. "Russia i have to admit im shocked you chose your enemy as your lover but I support you and I approve of the American as long as he promises to love you and never abuse you or your love." USSR say before looking at the American with tears running down his flustered cheeks. "Th-thank yo-you s-sir, i-i pro-pro-promise to-to lo-love an-and por-protect yo-your s-son wi-with m-my li-life" America says as he sobs tears running down his cheeks one after the other. "Welcome to my family son..." USSR say as he looks at America with tears going down his cheeks. Russia smiles at his father before pulling America into a hugs and wiping his tears gently. This causes USSR to smile and get up walking around the table over to America and Russia he then pulls both or them into a tight hug.

It's been a month since America was accepted by USSR and since then the man has accepted the American as his own son this made America feel like he had a second chance to have a father son relationship. The Russian man has visited his son and America many times bearing gifts and delightful sweets. When the Russian visits the couple he talks about Russia siblings telling him about things that he never new about them, this made the American feel appreciated and apart of the family. This causes Russia to be more cheerful and happy that his father accepted his lover even though it was the male American. Sure USSR was a little upset knowing his oldest son was gay but he soon came to learn that the small American was a loving and had a grate personality he also found out that the small boy had cut his arms with a small blade due to his father begin so tough of the small contry. When USSR found the scars on the males for arm his heart broke knowing Russia did the same the day he thought America used him. Since America never had a good family he decided to bring the boy into his own. USSR and Russia is planning on surprising the American with a visit at USSR's house, a small welcome party. Russia's excitement grew by the day. Today was the day, America is finally getting to meet Russia's family or at least the ones that still live with USSR most of them moved out when they were old enough but some stayed to look after USSR. Russia smiles as he walks down the stairs his phone in his hand as he texts USSR. "Hey who are you texting Bebe?" America says as he looks at the Russian with the phone in his hand. Russia jumps and blushes before walking over to him from behind. "It's a surprise~" Russia teased before pulling out a blind fold and quickly putting it over the small Americans eyes. America let out a surprised gasp as he sees nothing but darkness. "Ru-russia!? What going on!?" America panics as the taller make picks him up bridal style carrying him out of the house and into the car. Russia sits America down on the sidewalk before opening the passenger side door, he then helps the flustered and blind folded America in the car before buckling his seatbelt and closing the door. This causes America to jump at the sudden noise. Russia then ran around the car the the driver side, he opens the door and steps in the car he then pulls out his car keys and puts them in the starter before turning the key. Once he started the car he buckles his own seatbelt and closes his door.

Time skip at USSR's house

Russia pulled the car to a stop and before pulling out his keys and unbuckling his and America's seatbelts Russia then opens his door and steps out if the car he then shuts the door and runs over to the small American. He opens the passenger door and helps America out or the car, once America was out of the car Russia picks him up again he then Carry's him to the door the USSR is standing at. USSR smiles as he moves to the side allowing the to males to enter his house. Once Russia sat America down on the couch he began to feel around his body is stands up with his arm extend out in front of him, this makes Russia quickly run and grab him before he ran into the coffee table in front of his. "Russia? Where are we?" America questioned as he hugged on to the taller male balancing his self so he would not fall before adding. "Are we even their?" America asked annoyed slightly. Russia giggles and looks at USSR who motions for him to take off the blind fold. Russia quickly catches on and smiles as he looks around and sees Ukraine, Vietnam and Belarus smiling excitedly. "Okay are you ready?" Russia asked the smaller male as he hold him my his shoulders gently. "Fuck yeah this thing is annoying." America says as he laughs slightly. "Okay then hear we go..." Russia says before slowly untying the blind fold letting it fall to the floor. As the blind fold was removed America's eyes slowly flustered open and began looking around examining his surroundings. America then noticed USSR and some contry's that looked the same age as him or a little older. "Wh-what is this?" America asked as he looked at the family with uncertainty. "Well you see I think it's time you meet the rest of Russia family." USSR says before stepping away so that the three of the Russian kids could walk to the American. America felt tears falling down his cheeks as the three contry's begin smiling and hugging him. This causes Russia to walk over to the American boy and gently kiss his forehead. America sons slightly as the joy have having a good family fills his heart and soul. This didn't go unnoticed by the family they invited him to stay but the American was unsure of rather or not he should. As the American began to talk to Ukraine, Vietnam and Belarus he began to feel loved he felt like he had a true father that cares and he does. The Russian father smiles knowing his son is going to be safe USSR pulls out a needle and sticks it in his arm he hisses due to the fact that it was the 12 needle he had done that day. As USSR pulls the needle out he places it in his coat pocket before walking to the kitchen and throwing it away in the trash, feeling the effects he quickly runs upstairs and presses his back against the wall on the other side of the hallway. USSR begin to lose consciousness his eyes slowly closing as they close he could hear cry's of his family and America yelling out his name but it was to late he began to brake apart and fade turning into nothing but dust..

As he faded America and his new found faimly began to cry out USSR's name looking for him. America found a staircase and quickly ran up then stopping at soon at he reached the top. Their he was he was gone he faded Into nothing but dust right in front of him. America began to sob and cry out USSR's name. When Russia heard America's cry's he quickly made his way to the stairs and ran up them. The Russians heart sank as he saw the sight in front of him. America crying out USSR's name as he turns into nothing, Russia was heartbroken he didn't know what to do he felt anger and sadness filling up inside him he balls his hands into a fist as tears begin to fall down his cheeks. Russia walks over to his father's coat he picks it and hugs it to his chest before falling on his knees still hugging the coat to his chest as he sobs.

Today is the day the day USSR is being remembered. America, Canada, Russia, Australia, Ukraine, Vietnam and all of Russia family and friends are sitting in the living room that belonged to USSR, they wore Black. America holds Russia as he hugs his fathers coat and sobs slowly shushing his sobs as America pulls him into his chest, whispering sweet things like "shhhh... It's okay I'm here." Or "he's always with you" America struggles as he tries to keep his voice from cracking. Russia slowly begins to stop crying. The Russian looks up at his faimly and friends who have been trying to comfort him for the past 5 minutes. As he realized that he was the one who was the closest to his father he whines as tears slowly fall down his flustered and tear staind cheeks. America saw this and grabbed Russia face, cupping his cheeks while using his thumbs to wipe his tear. America then looks over at Japan who smiles at the two. "H-hey Ru-russia w-we are he-hear f-f-for you." Japan said as he tries to choke back her sobs as he hugs the Russian. Russia smiles and hugs her. "Th-thanks ja-japan" Russia says as he takes a deep breath to calm his self. America pats Russia's back as he give him a small smile that quickly fades. "Okay guys let's get everything together and get to leave for the ceremony." Ukraine says as he struggles to keep his voice steady. This didn't go unnoticed by the family as they stood and began gathering their belongings. America sat confused as he watched everyone around him walk to the kitchen and grab plates of food and drinks carrying them to their vehicle's. As he watched he didn't notice that Russia had left the place beside him and gone to grab what was left. Once America noticed Russia's absence he began to panic, he quickly jumped up and look around seeing no one, he walked to the next room which was the kitchen. America let out a sigh of relief as he saw Russia over filling his arms with plates and drinks. Russia let's out a surprised gasp as he catches a bowl of macaroni and cheese before it hit the floor. America smiles and walks over to him, he grabs the bowl and a few other thing and walked out of the house he sets the items down on the trunk of the car. He then opened the back door on the passenger side and began placing them neatly before walking back inside the house to help Russia. When America made it in the house he saw Russia slowly and carefully walking towards the door with plates. America sighs and walks over to him. "Need some help?" America asked shyly. "Yeah please." Russia respond with a weak laugh that made America smile slightly before grabbing a few plates and drinks from the Russian. "Thanks America.." Russia said as he took a few things. "It's nothing sweetheart I'm always going to be here for you." America says as he stands on his tip toes, he gently kisses Russia (nonexistent) nose. Russia let out a small surprised as his cheeks flustered a little. This didn't go unnoticed by small American who begin so smirk slightly. Russia smiles at America and walks outside to the car America quickly follows him. Once America and Russia made it to the car America began stacking the plates and drinks on top of each other. Once America finished he allowed Russia to sit in the passenger seat because he was to upset to drive.

America pulled the car to a stop in front of an old church, not an old church with chipped paint and tall grass but instead a freshly painted and designed church. As America examined his surroundings he smiled and looks over at Russia, he is wearing a black and white tux and so was America. America thought Russia looked sexy, he found himself looking and his face before long they traveled to his chest hear America bit his lip as he looked at the taller males crotch. America could feel his pants getting tighter and he groaned knowing that his boner is going to kill him. As America continued to stare at Russia crotch he didn't notice that Russia had turned his attention towards him. Russia notied that the American is staring at his crotch this caused him to smirk knowing the ceremony doesn't start until two more hours. "Hey Ame?~" Russia said in a seductive manner causing America to jump and blush as he sees the smirk plastered on the Russian boys face. "Ye-yes? Ru-Ruseia?" America stuttered. "The ceremony doesn't start until two more hours. Do you wanna have some fun?~" Russia says leaning across the seat amd grabbing America's cock, squeezing it. Aw Russia squeezed America's member he let's out a squeal as the sudden touches surprised him. "Ru-Russia... Ah~" America moaned as Russia begins to stroke his member. America then gently pushes Russia's hand away from his member hoping he will get the hint. Russia sighed as he did indeed get the hint and he quickly pulled away from America. "So-sorry.." Russia says looking down at his feet ashamed of his behavior. "N-no it's okay it feels good but I don't think we should have sex in a car next to a church full of your family" America says with a laugh. The Russian quickly realized what the American was saying and covers his face in embarrassment. "C'mon let's get the rest of the food and drinks inside" America says as he noticed Russia's bulge and blushes. Russia uncovers his face and smiles at America. "Okay" Russia says as he opens his door and steps out, he then moves out of the door and closes it. America steps out as well before closing the door. America walks around the car and walks up to Russia, he grabs his ass and squeezes it. This causes Russia to jump and let out a surprised squeak, America then stands on his tip toes and wispers in Russia's ear. "We will continue this later~" America says seductively as he squeezes Russia ass a little tighter. Russia blushes a crimson red as he looks at America. "Sounds good big boy~" Russia said seductively while adding a moan. America was took by surprise when Russia respond so seductively that no one can resist. Once the shock passed over America he smirks before backing away from Russia and grabbing trays of food and drinks, he then walks to the main entrance of the church that leads to a huge room with rows and rows of seats, in the front of the room stood a stand and a microphone. As America walked into the kitchen Russia walks into main room he amirs the room as the place brought back memories from his childhood. Memories of his mother, his childhood friends and how close he was to his siblings when he was younger. Russia sighs and walks further in the room. Russia gently brushes his finger tips across the maroon fabric with the soft texture. As Russia walks around the main room he doesn't notice Ukraine slip in and walk up to him. "Thinking of the first time dad brought us here?" The Ukrainian boy asked smiling a little. Russia jumped in surprise as the voice had broken the silence and his chain of thoughts. "Yeah.. it was the day he introduced me to you." Russia smiles at his younger brother. The Ukrainian looked confused. "What do you mean?" Ukraine asked a little confused. "Well.. mom was in the hospital with you, I was at vietnoms house because he was baby sitting me. After a couple hours Vietnam told me he was talking he

to see Mom but instead he brought he here. Mom sat on the floor in front of the stand with you in her arms. I was so shocked." Russia looked at Ukraine with a big smile. "So they surprised you?" Ukraine says smiling. "Yeah they did and it was one of the best surprises ever." The Russian boy says as he hugs Ukraine. Ukraine hugs back and smiles up at his brother. Russia looks down at the smaller boys and smiles softly before kissing him on the forehead. America slips in and smiles at the too brothers before walking out side and locking the car.

Tike skip after the ceremony

Everyone watched as too men closes USSR coffin and began taking him away. Russia and his family had tears running down their cheeks as they see their father being taken away. America hugs onto Russia side as they sit on the seat. Russia looks down at the small American as he sobs. "Ru-Russia.." America begins to sob as he sees the men leave with USSR. Russia pulls America in his lap and hides his face in his neck as he sobs. America hugs onto the Russian as tears run down his flustered cheeks. After a while the too calmed down and left without eating the dinner in the back. The two walked out as everyone left and went to the kitchen to eat. The two hugged each other in the front of the clothed church doors before walking over to their car. America unlocked the car and they both got in and closed the doors before the buckling their seat belts. After they were buckled America pulled the car out o the parking lot and they began on their way home.

9 getting closer

It's been almost a month since USSR had moved on and Russia and America seem to be closer then ever. Russia has been taking days off of his work just to take America out to dinner or stay at home and watch some Netflix. Whatever the two did they always found away to talk to each other about their days and that acted liked an ice breaker, it's brings them close to together. The two have been talking to each other more and going places. America loved how close he is getting to the Russian and he wants to be closer to him so America stays home instead of going out and he plans to take the Russian star gazing. Russia always secretly loved looking at the stars and he loved to talk about them. America thought it was cute when Russia would go on about how he loved the stars and he would like to go star gazing again. Finally America had finished up and decided to tack his lover star gazing, America had packed a picnic basket with plenty of food, a cooler with drinks a and a big blanket to lay on the ground to sit on. America anxiously waits for the Russian boy to get off of work he hoped he would get home early.

Mean while, Russia walks down the side walk happy that his shift is over and even happier that he gets to see his lover America.

At the house, America walks upstairs and begins looking for something to wear, he picks out a light blue turtle neck sweater, a pair of dark blue ripped, high wasted jeans, a pair of white socks and a pair of black and white Converse. America then changes into the outfit.

Mean while, the Russian boy pulls our his keys and pushed them in the door, he twisted the key to the right hearing a click Russia pulls the key out and opens the door he looks around the room and see sees a smiling America sitting on the couch. "Daddy, I have you a surprise~" America says smirking at Russia cheeks as America called him daddy. "Wa-what is it Ame?" The Russian asked a little confused. America chuckles and smiles at the Russian. "It's a surprrrrisssse." America says walking over to Russia, wrapping his arms around his neck and pulling his closer. America then kisses Russia passionately, America makes their tongues dance in Russia mouth for a few moments before he pulls away and wipes his mouth. "Are you ready for your surprise?" America asked smiling. Russia smiles and nods. "Okay then..." America says softly before blind folding Russia. "Umm America I act see what am-"

"I know you can't see that's the point, just relax I know what I'm doing okay." America says with kindness and generosity.

"Ok-okay I trust you." Russia wispered as he felt America hand on his. He then felt the smaller male begin to pull him and he followed without asking questions. America brought the smaller male to their car parked next to the side walk. America opens the passenger side door and helps the Russian boy in his seat before buckling his seatbelt and closing the door. America walks around the car and opens the driver side door before stepping in and closing the door, he then buckles his own seatbelt and puts the keys in the starter. America turns the key and the car turns on. America looks over at the Russian boy and smiles before pulling the car out of the street and into the highway.

"Okay Russia i need to get something before we get to your surprise, i will be back as fast as I can." America says reaching in the back of the car grabbing the basket with the cover on top of it. America then pulls the basket in his lap before opening the car door and stepping out, once be was out of the car he turns and grabs the basket once more then he closes the car door. Once America closed the door he walks on the green grass, he walks up a small his and sets the basket down. America takes the cover of the basket and unfolds it, he spreads it out neatly and placed the basket in the middle of the square blanket. America then walks back to the car and walks around to the passenger side and opens the door. Russia jumps. "America?" Russia questions. America hums an answer as he helps the Russian out of the seatbelt. "I'm going to gide you okay." America says as he helps Russia put if the car. "Ok-okay" Russia says. America grabs Russia and begins to slowly walk him up the small hill. "Okay are you ready?" America says as he takes off the blind fold that covered the Russian face. Russia's eyes widened as he sees that he is out side. "America what's this?" Russia questions as he looks at the blanket in front of him. "Well you keep say you would like to go star gazing Soo I decide to stay home and make plans while you were at work" America smiles as he looks at the Russian boy. "It's amazing. How did you pull it off without me knowing?" The Russian boys says as he looks in at the stars gis eyes glimmering with hope and beauty. "It wasn't easy but it was worth it to see you smile" America says as he takes Russia's hand in his own. Russia turns his attention back to America and blushes slightly before kissing his cheek and pulling him to sit on the red fuzzy blanket with him. America smiles as he looks at Russia's eyes sparkling like the stars. "I love you Ame" Russia says with his eyes once again glued to the sky. America scoots closer to Russia and leans his head on his shoulder as he looks at the stars. The Russian jumps in surprise as America leans his head on his shoulder. "I love you too Russy" America says as he kisses the other males neck.

Russia groans as he slowly begins to wake up. The Russian boy yawns before looking down at the small American sleeping peacefully on his chest. Russia smiles softly before kissing the Americans forhead. "I wonder what we have planned today" Russia wispered to him self before looking down at his lover's beautiful face. America seemed to be blushing and smiling in his sleep as he hugged the Russian. Something about that made the Russian boys heart flutter and dance. The smaller small American groaned slightly as his eyes opened slightly, this caused Russia to hold his breath as his eyes widened. America move his head slightly to look in Russia face. Once America saw that Russia was awake he smiles softly before rubbing the sleep from his eye. Russia exhales a breath that he didn't know was holding in for so long. This didn't go unnoticed by the Smaller male as he looked at his lover with a shocked and worried expression. "Is something wrong baby?" The American asked as he placed his right hand on Russia's cheek.

The Russian boy smiles softly before shaking his head no. America seemed not to believe him and furrowed a eyebrow at him. Russia chuckles at the smaller male. "No nothing is wrong Bebe. I just thought I woke you up accidentally" Russia nervously rubbing the back of his neck. The American giggled and smiled at him. "No you didn't wake me, I woke up on my own" the American says as he crawls off of Russia and lays down next to him.

The Russian boy whines and bits his bottom lip. America couldn't help but notice the seductive manner and the lust filled eyes that the Russian seem to show to his boyfriend. America smirks before crawling on top if Russia, sitting on his crotch he looks down at his lover to notice his flustered cheeks and dirty smirk. America likes the situation and begins to move his ass, this causes his ass to stroke the Russian boys half erected member causing him to moan and lean his head back slightly. America groans quitely before leaning down and kissing Russia's lips, America swipes his tongue against Russia's bottom lip asking him for permission to enter the Russian moans quietly before opening his mouth just enough to allow the American tongue to slip pass his lips.

Russia groans as he grips the smaller males hips, keeping them steady as their tongues danced together, battling for Dominance. The Russian of course wins and smirks against the smaller males lips before pulling away and moving his right hand down his hip to his crotch. America gasped as a pink dusted his red and white striped face. Russia chuckles before gently laying down the American as gently as he could while he continued to gently rub his clothed bulge. The small Americans body arches as he rises his ass of the matress and moans. The Russian boys eyes widened as he gasped and quickly clapped his hand over his mouth as a bright red blush begins to dance on his cheeks. America looks at and gives him a devilish smirk. "What's the matter?~" the American says Seductively as he looks at the flustered Russian. "I-i didn't expect you to do that..." The Russian boy looks away as a small smile crept on his face. America chuckles to himself before leaning forward and gently grabbing the Russian boys right hand and pulls it to his clothed bulge. The Russian boys eyes widened as he soon smirks and continues what the smaller male wanted, Russia gently rubs his bulge threw his boxers. America moans as he leans his head back, his tongue lolling out while sweat rolls down his face this makes him look like a dog on a hot summer day.

The Russian boy raised up a little to see the Americans face, as he sees the ways he look he smirks knowing he is like this because of him. "You like that don't you?" The Russian says before leaning down and licking the fabric covering the Americans bulge, this causes a damp stop on the Americans boxer. America loved the wetness and he loved the Russians tongue exploring his body. He wanted more he wanted him. "...ahh~ Ru-Ruseia!~" the American moans as the Russian begins to suck the tip of his clothed bulge. This was Killin America, he begins bucking his hip. Russia gags slightly as America hits the back of his throat. The Russian had enough his bulge was painfully pushing against his boxers and teasing the small American only seem to erect his member even more. The Russian boy strips both of them of their boxers before pulling America up for another passionate kiss. America groans as Russia member pokes the lower half of his thigh, he brakes the kiss and moves slightly to see the taller males boner.
"Hehe, it's that for me?~" the American says Seductively but filled with Innocents before gently laying the Russian down and climbing on top of him. "Ame-america what are you doing?" The Russian boy questions as he watched America begin to lick his member. Russia grunts before grabbing America's hips and turning his ass towards his face. America questions his partner as looks under his stomach to see the Russian trying to move the Americans crotch to his face. America smirks and spreads his legs. (I hope you guys know what I'm talking about lmao). Once the two were situated the Russian boy begins to take in America's full length, he gags slightly as he forces himself to deep throat. America moans quitely as he sucks the Russian boys member, allowing his head to bob up and down.

The American grips the Russian boys thighs as he moans loudly, "A..ah~ daddy I'm gonna.. ngghhh!" The smaller male couldn't even finish his sentence before he came in the Russians throat causing him to gag and cough, he quickly recovers and swallowed before licking his lips and looking at the Americans face. America was moaning and panting, Russia was moaning too but not as much as America. Russia smirks as he looks at the American who begin trying to deep throat him. Russia moans softly as he is close to climax. America notices how close the Russian was an deep throats him, this causes tears to stream down his face as he allowed his head to bob up and down. Russia moans loudly as he cummed in the Americans mouth. America yanked his head up quickly as he was surprised by how fast he came.

The Russian boy smiles softly at the American as he watches him crawl off his chest and sit next to him. America leans down and kisses the Russian boys nose before cupping his cheeks and looking in his beautiful pearl white eyes. The Russian smirks before grabbing the smaller American waste and pulling him on his lap. The American gasped as he smiles as looks lustfully. The Russian gently slides into the American as he hold his waist, America moans in a mixture if pain and pleasure. America grips the Russians shoulders as he slides down slowly until he is ball deep. Once America was ball beep the Russian waited patiently for the smaller to get used to his size. After a few minutes America gently rolled his hip against Russia causing him to moan and squeeze his thighs. America groans softly before beginning to slowly ride the Russian boy. Russia moans as he grips America's hips one more and begins to pound him. America moans as he begins to lose control, he cums on his chest as the Russian hits his prostate with an increasing speed. The Russians hand move back to America's ass, he squeezes it ass as he pounds him a few more times before cumming inside of him with a loud grunt. .....(.....)... What the author says

It's been almost a month and an half since we last seen our lover's 'fighting' In bed (God help me LMAO). The Russian boy sits on his black leather couch as he talks to his step father Nazi. "Russia how are you doing, I haven't heard from you since your father's funeral." The German asked with some concern. "I'm hanging in their... America has helped me threw a lot." The Russian said as he smiles softly. "That's good, how long have you and the American been together?" The German said out of pure curiosity. Russia thought for a moment before answering. "I think we will be together a year and a half tomorrow, why are you asking?" Russia tilts his head slightly as he question the German man. " Oh no reason." The Nazi said as a smirk emerges on his face going unnoticed dude to being on the phone. "Can you come over if you have time?" The Russian asked as he played with his hands nervously. The German hums and answer before saying his good bye.

The Russian boy waited as he began to walk around the room that he was currently in, he paces back and forth with his head down and his arm behind his back. 'What if he doesn't like the idea?' the Russian thought as he paces impatiently. The American was not home at the moment he was visiting his family while talking to his father and mother about living with the Russian boy who happens to be his worst enemy or so that's what they thought, the two are more the less teddy bears then enemies. Russia sighs before sitting down on his knees, he begins to pray. ' father if you can hear me I hope you are proud of me. I'm deciding I want to marry America he doesn't know yet but I'm going to tell Nazi. What will he say? Will he be upset. I wish I knew, I wish you were here...' the Russian boy mumbles as tears gather in the corners of his eyes. As the boy sat on his knees tears fell down his cheeks. The Russian didn't notice that the Nazi had walked and was standing in the door way.

The Germans heart broke seeing the Russian boy in the state he is in. He sighs before making his way closer to the boy on the floor. "Russia?" The German simply said with no emotion. The Russian head snaps up as he frantically wipes his tear. "Ye-yeah?" The Russian sniffed as he shutters. "Look I know it hard and it hurts but if their is something wrong you need to tell me." The German said as he sits down abd pulls the Russian into a warm hug. "Th-thanks... " The Russian said as he sobs slightly as hides his face into the older mans chest. " Want to marry America...." The Russian chokes out as he sobs in to the mans chest. The German gasped as a smirk was painted on his face. "My child is this why your so worked up?" The German said as he rubs soothing circular movements onto the younger ones back. The Russian nods as his sobs are bow replaced with his breathing. "Do you want this?" The Nazi grabs his chin and turns his face so he could see it. The Russian nods once again before tears begin to fall down his cheeks. "Wi-will Da-dad be-be pro-proud..?" The Russian sobs as he tries to make out his words as clear as possible.

The German man sighed before smiling down at the younger male. "O-of course he is, I know I am.." the Nazi said as tears fell down his cheeks, he was so proud of the Russian boy that's tears of pure joy fell down his cheeks. The Russian sobs at the older males words as thanks him.

"Not yet..." The young Russian said as he look up into the older mans face. "it's kinda why I needed you help.." the Russian quitely adds as he smiles. The German gasped as he requested help from him, he knew everything to do and how to plan a weeding but he never actually planned a wedding for a gay couple. The German groans defeated as he looks down at the younger male." Alright... Have you asked America to be you husband yet?" The Nazi questions as he looks around the room awkwardly. "N-no I'm planning on taking him out when the plans are finished." The Russian boys said as a small blush painted his cheeks. The German chuckles. "Okay but are you sure you can keep it a secret?" The Nazi said with disbelief In his eyes. The Russian nods before smiling softly at the German. "Okay.. I think I will be able to finish the plans in about three months, I will call you and ask questions and you will need to answer them." The Nazi said as he pats the Russian boys head.

The Russian boy smiles as he nods his head. "Thanks for the help.." the Russian boy says as he smiles. "It's nothing to worry about.." the German said as he smiles and looks at the watch. "I have to go but I will call you in a week." The German said before giving one that hug to the Russian before leaving. Once Nazi had left the Russian begins planning on a place to take the American. America was not home at the moment so that gave the Russian plenty of time to finish up the plans. 'what if I take him out to eat? No that wouldn't work Because he would want to go to fucking McDonald's and that place is nasty.. the Russian said to himself as he made a disgusted face.

America hums to himself as he walks down the sidewalk to get to his house. "Hey! America!" Someone yells from behind him making him jump in surprise as he turns around quickly to see a slightly smaller country running towrd him. "Hey Poland" the American says as he smiles softly. "Hey! How are you?" The Polish boy asked as he smiles back a small blush painted his cheeks. America's heart melts as the boy reminds him or his brother Canada. "I-im good, how about you?" The American smiles as he studders a little. "Oh I'm good! Thanks for asking." The smaller male said as he smiles brightly. America nobs before motioning for him to follow. Poland hesitates but quickly catches up with the American boy. "Soo ame, I was meaning to talk to you." The Poland boy said as he nervously runs the back or his neck. This causes the American to turn to his friend with a concerned look on his face. "I-its about Germany..." The boy quitely adds, this causes America to grin to ear to ear like a possum eating saw bars.

The taller males eyes turn to stars as he jumps up and down. "Tell me, tell me, tell me!!!" The American boy says with excitement. The Polish boys face turns blood red as he smiles at how childish his friend is being at the moment."Do you think.... I don't no..." The Polish boy looks away from pure embarrassment. "No, go ahead finish what you were sayin." America says as he looks his friend in his eyes. "I want to marry.... Germany..." The smaller male squeaks out of his throat as he looks away obviously embarrassed. "Awwww that's so cute!!!!" The American squeals as stars sparkle in his eyes. "Yo-you think so?" The Polish boy said as he smiles. "Ye-" dingding America sighs as he picks up his phone and looks at his notifications. The American boys eyes widened as he saw it was a notification saying the Russian boy is having trouble breathing. "Uh Poland I have to go it's vary important." The American said with pleading eyes as he quickly ran off.

Once America made it to the front door of his house he kicks the door open to see the Russian boy crying on the couch, gasping for air. America's heart brakes into a million tiny pieces. America walks over to the couch and sits down next to the taller male, Russia jumps as feels movements next to him, once he saw America he took his head phones off and wiped his tears. America pulls the taller male into a hug, the Russian boy sobs into the Americans shoulder.
"Babe, what's wrong?" The American wispers as he rubs soothing

He quitely says as he enters the room. Russia turns around in his chair and smiles softly at the smaller. "Yes my love?" Russia said in a sweet tone patting his lap. America walks over and sits down on Russia's lap he presses his back against his chest. "I have a question.." America says softly Russia hums as an answer. "C-can we have a kid?" America says as he smiles with joy. Russia's face turns blood red as he just about fell of out the chair. "Wh-what!? Baby your male.." America turns around accidentally rubbing his ass against the talkers crotch as he shifted. "A-ame～" Russia moans as he shifted. America smirks as he cups Russia's cheeks. "Yes daddy?" America smirks knowing Russia is going to get hard. "Mh... I'm guessing someone wants to play?～" Russia says before leaning in and kissing the small male. Russia bites Ame's bottom lip asking for permission to enter and of course the small American gave him access. Russia slips his tongue in America's mouth causing him to moan and grind his semi- hard member against Russia's thigh. Russia moans as he grips America hips. America pulls away panting slightly. "Da-daddy let's go to our room" America says grinding harder on the male causing him to moan. "A-ah! A-as you wish doll.~" Russia moans before standing up, he picks up America and kisses him as he walks to their room. America wraps his legs around Russia's waist as he moans softly. Once Russia made it to the room he trows America on the bed before grabbing a rope and walking over to him. America smirks as looks at Russia lustfully. "Someone has been a bad boy, I think it's time to punish you~" Russia smirks and he ties America up. America squirms and struggles against the robe but quickly gives up. "Ahh daddy please~" America moans as squirms uncomfortable due to his member painfully pressing against his boxers and jeans. Russia strips him if his close before crawling on top of him, he kisses America passionately before pulling away and licking his neck, instantly finding the males soft spot causing Ame's breath to Hitch. Russia smirks and begins to abuse that spot, licking and biting it this causes America to moan and pant softly. America's boner didn't go unnoticed by the taller who began to tease him by rubbing his tip with the palm of his hand.

America moans and bucks his hips as he whines. "Ru-russia please don't tease me!~" America whines. Russia ignores his Cris and continues to tease the small boy. Russia leans down and licks the tent in the smaller males boxers, Ame's eyes widened as the wetness made his member erect to it's maximum size. Russia chuckles softly before taking his own clothes off, he then begins to grind his member against Ame's this causes ame to moan loudly and buck his hips while trowing his head back. Russia can't hold him self back anymore, he grabs the top of his boxers and pull them down before untying the ropes around America's wrist. America strips his boxers off before crawling on top of Russia. Russia grunts. "Now America you can't touch your self. " Russia says as he watches Ame's hands quickly retreat. America squirms. "Can I at least touch yours?" America whines and moves down to Russia's cock without waiting for an answer from the taller male.
America wraps his hand around Russia member he could barely get his hand around it. America strokes Russia's shaft with his right hand and his left hands plays with his balls. Russia trows his head back in pleasure as he moans. America continued this for awhile until he saw a small drip of pre-cum drip on his thumb that's when he begins licking the tip of the Russian's shaft. Russia groans as he bucks his hips slightly. America smirks and begins to take his shaft in his mouth. Russia's hands grab the back of America's head as he begins to deep throat him. "Ahhhh~ damn A-Ame y-you broke a-another rule~" Russia moans as he watches America. This only makes America fasten his pace as he bobs his head. Russia groans softly as he grips the back of America's head tightly. America squirms slightly as his boner is Killin him. Russia noticed and laughs this causes America to bite down gently on the tip of the Russians shaft. Russia grabs America's head and forces it down as he tenses up and releases in his mouth with a loud moan.

America gags and coughs a few times before swallowing. Russia pants softly. "Did I do okay Daddy?" America asked with a big smirk. Russia pins the smaller male on the bed. "You did ame but you also broke the rules, you know what that means~" Russia says causing shivers of delight to run up the smaller males spine. Russia smirks before kissing America passionately, America kisses back as he squirms. Russia pulls away and smiles before gently flipping America on his stomach, he grabs the rope and ties his wrist behind his back. America grunts softly. Russia growls under his breath before sticking his hand in front of America's face demanding "suck.". America's eyes fill with fear as he does as he was told, America sucks on three of Russia's fingers for a few minutes before Russia pulls his hand away.

Russia traces America's entrance with his wet index finger causing the smaller male to moan softly, Russia shoves his finger inside of the Americans entrance. America whines in pain, Russ soon begins to thrust his finger deep inside the boy a few time. America's head goes back and he moans as he begins to buck his hips against Russ's fingers, Russia smirks before shoving another finger inside of America now scissoring him. America moans grow louder. Finally Russ pulls his hands away, he squeezes America's ass causing him to moan quitely. Russia lines his member up with America's entrance. "Da-daddy wait! I'm still sore from the other night!" America whines as he pulls against the ropes. Russia leans down and licks America's neck causing him to moan softly and shiver. "I'm sorry it has to be like this my love, I have told you the rules" Russia wispers as he licks his neck more. "Da-daddy please! I'm sorry a-and I only broke one rule!" America whines. "You entered my office when I was working." Russia said as be begins to grind America into the mattress "T-that's only o- ahhh~ one" Ame moans quitely. "You touched my dick without consent" Russia say as he grinds harder. "T-two" America whines as he bites his lip. "C'mon baby you broke more then one rule might as well let me punish you, I promise to be gentle~." Russia says as he gently kisses America's neck and shoulder. "Ahhh da-daddy" America gibes in and let's the Russian do as he pleased. Russia stops grinding against him and generosity shoves the tip of him member inside of America, Ame cries in pain as he desperately pulls against the ropes, tears on the edge of falling. Russia leans down and presses his stomach against America's back, he licks, sucks and nips at his neck causing him to moan. As Russia plays with America's neck he slowly and gently enters him. America whines softly but it ends up turning into a moan, Russia chuckles before gently kissing America's, America kissed back his moans fill Russia's mouth. Russia squeezes America's ass as he gently begins to thrust. America moans as he leans his head back, this encourages Russia to thrust harder. America trows his head back and and arches his back while moaning loudly as Russia hit his prostate. "Ru-russia! Ahhhhh~ " America moans as his eyes roll back in his head. "What is it?~" Russia grunts as he begins to thrust harder. " Ha- aHh harder da-daddy!~" America moans. "With pleasure~" Russia says before pulling his member out of America, nothing in him but the tip he then slammed back in. "F-fuck! Ahhh~ " America moans as he bucks his hips, Russia chuckles as he continues to pound him with the same movements hitting the smaller males prostate each time. America gasp loudly as he moaned. "Da-daddy ahh i-im close!~" America moans as he bucks his hips more. Russia's left hand reaches down and begins to stroke America's member, America moans as he releases in Russia's hand. Russia pulls his hand away and licks it as he continues pound. "Ahhhh daddy! Please cum in me!~" America moans loudly as he bucks his hip. This causes Russia to squeeze his ass with both hands and pound him as hard as he could. Russia's thrust began to be sloppy and off timed. "Fuck ame, im close~" Russia grunts before trusting a few more times cumming deep inside of the smaller male, America moans before collapsing on the bed.

The two panting and sweaty with flustered faces. Russia pulls America to his chest and snuggles him. America smiles softly before cuping his cheeks and kissing his nose. Russia smiles before kissing America's cheek. "What did I do to deserve you?" Russia asked with a smile. "I'm not sure but it had to be something" America smiles before laying his head on Russia's chest. "I love you Ame..." Russia wispers. "I love you too, if I didn't I wouldn't have fucked you and got pregnant" America plainly says with a laugh Russia's eyes widen as his jaw drops. "Wait!? Your serious!?" Russia says with confusion. "Yeah, I'm serious." America smiles and looks down at his stomach. "God baby i-i don't know what to say!" Russia says as he hugs America, kissing his face then his stomach. America looks down and sees Russia crying tears of joy. "Awwww baby" America says as he hugs Russia. Russia Burris his face in America neck. "I-im so happy" Russia says as he kisses America's neck gently. America smiles softly before laying down Russia lays down next to him and cuddles him. Soon enough they both fell asleep full of happiness.

Okay this is something off topic but I wanna give yall a story and a set of events that happened while I was not active but anyways let's get into it.

Flash back

Last year (2019) in the beginning of my freshman year a guy named Zachary had a crush on me but at the time I was going threw a lot and dating a guy named Ashton or Commie-boi. Well me an ash decided it was best if I wasn't in a relationship because of everything I was going threw and I respected that he was willing to help out even though it means braking up with me, I really do but anyway I rejected Zach and latter in the year me and ash and stopped dating so I decided to try to talk to Zach and I found out he got with my 18 hoe of a cousin Carolyn, well the school and my classmates hated Carolyn and caused them to brake up and about two 4 weeks after that me and Zach started dated we dated for months until Carolyn wrote a note saying that Zach tryed to raped her and that I was taking her side and I told them I had nothing to do with it and I didn't know about the note and plush I was dating zach. Well the conflict got worse and a bunch of girls were going to jump Carolyn and she went home early but when I got home I got blamed for everything and I was moved to a school called Perry Central High school and that is the worst school in all of Perry county anyway after being moved Zach cheated on me with my bff and then blocks me thinking that he will not have to deal with me later and I'm sitting here now, tracking his phone, thinking "this bitch is going die, whhaha" but y'know I have been talking to some friends at the school he goes to and my guy friends are going to whoop his ass Monday 😂😂😂😂😂😂😂
